

digital and direct

Creative Artworker

What we want:

Someone who is a sociable Mac boffin - and knows their leading from their kerning. You'll be working in one of London's largest studios, reporting directly to an Artwork Head.

What you'll do:

- Generate creative visuals
- Artwork visuals to the highest quality
- Work on a variety of media from POS to press
- Maintain and improve artwork standards
- Work closely with creatives and account teams

What you need:

- Attention to detail and extensive experience
- Excellent Indesign, Photoshop and Illustrator skills
- A thorough understanding of the print and production process
- A can-do attitude, good people skills and a sense of humour
